

design anthology

DESIGN

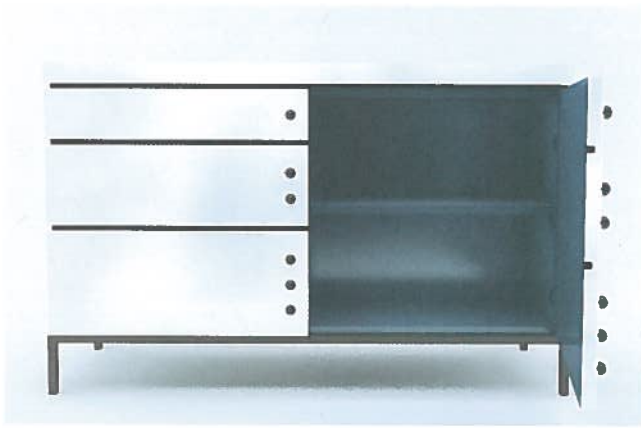

/ INTERIORS

/ ARCHITECTURE

/ TRAVEL

ISSUE 2

Sao Paolo cabinet. Image courtesy of GRADE

GRADE

GRADE is a multi-disciplinary architecture and interior design firm based in New York, with an impressive portfolio that spans high-end residential, restaurants and luxury retail spaces.

The tightly edited GRADE furniture collection has been launched, after years of producing custom designs for projects, with the desire to provide clients with a truly luxurious and personalised space.

With a focus on quality materials such as lacquer, polished chrome and leather, the range is characterised by the firm's clean-lined aesthetic.

gradenyc.com

Natasha Baradaran

Beverly Hills-based interior designer Natasha Baradaran has just launched her debut furniture collection.

Inspired by her lifelong love affair with jewellery design, the ten-piece collection consists of casegoods, upholstery and lighting sculptures. Dedicated to Baradaran's mother, who is a jewellery designer, the finishes used throughout are a mix of gloss, matte and metallics, including Baradaran's signature 'silver' leaf.

The collection is available exclusively through Jean de Merry showrooms in the USA.

natashabaradaran.com

Baguette coffee table. Image by John Coolidge